Superior Court

- Proceedings in Superior Court Criminal remain unchanged from the previous administrative orders. Administrative matters such as motions and guilty pleas will continue to be limited due to pandemic-related restrictions. We have now successfully conducted approximately 12-15 jury trials in the Greensboro and High Point courthouses combined. Defense attorneys should be ready to try the cases of clients who appear on the trial calendars in the upcoming weeks unless a continuance is granted for good cause shown.
- In civil cases, we will be making a transition during May from the current situation of all motions being heard remotely via WebEx, to mixed calendars of both remote hearings and hearings that will be heard in the courtrooms. The goal is to return to all motions being conducted in the courtrooms by mid-summer. For the time being, civil jury trials will continue to be conducted with juries of six persons; those parties who insist upon having their cases tried with the traditional jury of twelve can expect a resumption of the usual number of jurors by September 2021.
- For more information, please refer to the announcements listed on the email pages of Trial Court Coordinators Brittany Robinson and Wendy Stuart.

This the 26th day of April, 2021.
